Scope and Content Note

This series contains letterpress copies of outgoing correspondence created by Deputy Secretary of State Anson S. Wood and Chief Clerk Lee Chamberlin. Much of the correspondence relates to searches for certificates and articles of incorporation on file in the Secretary's office and procedures for filing of new certificates of incorporation and articles of association with the Secretary's office. Correspondence also addresses routine business including requests for copies of state laws, resolutions, and other state publications; filing of election returns by boards of county canvassers; and inquiries regarding title to real property.
