Scope and Content Note

This series consists of archival copies of the publicly accessible website of the New York State Commission on Property Tax Relief.

B2071-08: This accretion consists of a copy of the Commission on Property Tax Relief site produced on April 22, 2008, shortly after the resignation of Governor Eliot L. Spitzer (2007-2008). It contains information about the commission's members and staff and commission meeting announcements, presentations, summaries, and transcripts (2008).

B2071-09: This accretion consists of a copy of the Commission on Property Tax Relief site produced on January 9, 2009, shortly after commission issued its final report. It contains additional meeting announcements, summaries, and transcripts (2008), press releases (2008-2009), and the commission's December 2008 final report. Also included are fact sheets concerning the impact of property tax reform on special education and other educational programs, the potential benefits of school district consolidation, U.S. Census data highlighting property tax issues, and commission recommendations incorporated into the 2009-2010 Executive Budget.

B2071-10: This accretion consists of a copy of the Commission on Property Tax Relief site produced on December 23, 2010, shortly before Governor David A. Paterson (2008-2010) left office. All of the content present in this copy is also present in the January 9, 2009 copy. The site was removed from the live Web some time after this copy was produced.
