Scope and Content Note

This series consists of one archival copy of the publicly accessible website of the New York State Commission on Public Authority Reform produced on April 11, 2007, shortly after Governor George E. Pataki (1995-2006) left office. The site contains information about the commission's members and staff, text of the executive orders that created the commission and established its mission, and a copy of the June 2004 interim report of the New York State Public Authorities Governance Advisory Committee. Also included are the text of the Public Authorities Accountability Act of 2005 and the commission's May 2006 final report. The commission's site was removed from the live Web shortly after this copy was produced.
