Scope and Content Note

This series consists of archival copies of the publicly accessible websites of the central administration of the State University of New York.

B2181-07: This accretion consists of a copy of the State University of New York (SUNY) site produced on May 4, 2007, several months after Governor George E. Pataki (1995-2006) left office. It contains information about the organization's history, mission, and structure; undergraduate and graduate application forms and other materials for prospective students; press releases (2007); and strategic planning and financial reports (2004-2006). Complete listings of SUNY campuses and campus presidents; data for students, faculty and other employees of SUNY campuses (2006); and information about SUNY employee services and benefits are also included.

Information concerning the Faculty Senate includes listings of officers (1953-2005), newsletters (2004-2006), a calendar (2006-2007), publications (2004-2006), and committee reports (2006-2007). Information about the SUNY Urban Teacher Education Center (SUTEC), which assists students who wish to fulfill their student teaching requirements in New York City schools, and international programs that work in conjunction with SUNY campuses is also present.

Researchers should note that owing to the structure of the live site and the limitations of Web archiving technology, the SUNY directories and password-protected reports contained within this site could not be copied properly.

B2181-08: This accretion consists of a copy of the State University of New York (SUNY) site produced on August 31, 2008, several months after the resignation of Governor Eliot L. Spitzer (2007-2008). It contains information about the organization's history, mission, and structure; undergraduate and graduate application forms and other materials for prospective students; press releases (2007-2008); strategic planning documents (1985-2008); and annual financial reports (2004-2007). Also present are complete listings of SUNY campuses and campus presidents; information about employment opportunities; and data for students, faculty, and other employees of SUNY campuses (2007).

Information about the Faculty Senate includes listings of officers (1953-2005), newsletters (2004-2006), a calendar (2006-2007), publications (2004-2007), and committee reports (2006-2007). Information about SUNY employee services and benefits, the SUNY Urban Teacher Education Center, international programs that work in conjunction with SUNY campuses, a listing of famous SUNY alumni by category, and a complete campus library listing are also present.

Researchers should note that owing to the structure of the live site and the limitations of Web archiving technology, SUNY directories could not be captured. In addition, some reports are in Microsoft Excel but these cannot be viewed because a required password was not provided by SUNY.

B2181-11: This accretion contains a copy of the State University of New York (SUNY) site produced on December 22, 2010, shortly before Governor David A. Paterson (2008-2010) left office. January 13, 2011 copies of SUNY's Twitter page and YouTube channel are also included.
