Administrative History

Senator Eric L. Adams, a Democrat, was first elected to represent the 20th Senate District, which consists of sections of the Brooklyn neighborhoods of Boro Park, Crown Heights, Flatbush, Park Slope, Prospect Heights, Sunset Park, and Windsor Terrace, in 2006. He has served as ranking minority member of the Standing Committee on Crime Victims, Crime and Corrections and the Standing Committee on Veterans; ranking minority member (2007-2008) and chair (2009-2010) of the Standing Committee on Homeland Security and Military Affairs; and chair (2009-2010) of the Standing Committee on Racing, Gaming, and Wagering.

Scope and Content Note

This series consists of an archival copy of the official website of Senator Eric L. Adams produced on June 12, 2008, shortly after the resignation of Governor Eliot L. Spitzer (2007-2008). It contains biographical information, photographs, a map of the 20th Senate District, and press releases (2008) concerning anti-violence programs for children and other issues of interest to Senator Adams's constituents.

Researchers should note that, owing to the structure of the live site and the limitations of Web archiving technology, most of the information contained within this site could not be captured properly. In addition, some of the navigational links do not work properly. However, identical sets of navigational links appear at the top and the bottom of each page. If the link in one set does not work correctly, click the Web browser's Back button and then click on the corresponding link in the other set.

Researchers should also note that in 2009, each senator was allotted space on the main Senate Web site and the official sites of individual senators were removed from the live Web.
