Administrative History

Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins, a Democrat, was first elected to the Senate in 2006 while serving as a Westchester County legislator (1996-2006). She represents the 35th Senate District, which consists of the Westchester county communities of Ardsley, Dobbs Ferry, Elmsford, Greenburgh, Hastings-on-Hudson, Irvington, Mount Pleasant, Pleasantville, Sleepy Hollow, Tarrytown, and Yonkers. She has chaired of the Standing Committee on Local Government (2009-2010) and co-chaired the Senate Democratic Task Force on Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises. In December 2012, she was elected Minority Leader of the Senate. In January 2019, she became Temporary President and Majority Leader of the Senate.

Scope and Content Note

This series consists of an archival copy of Senator Stewart-Cousins's official website produced on June 13, 2008, shortly after the resignation of Governor Eliot L. Spitzer (2007-2008). It contains biographical information, photographs, a district map, and press releases (2008) concerning a higher education funding task force that Senator Stewart-Cousins headed.

Researchers should note that, owing to the structure of the live site and the limitations of Web archiving technology, most of the information contained within this site could not be captured properly. In addition, some of the navigational links do not work properly. However, identical sets of navigational links appear at the top and the bottom of each page. If the link in one set does not work correctly, click the Web browser's Back button and then click on the corresponding link in the other set.

Researchers should also note that in 2009, each Senator was allotted space on the main Senate website; the official sites of individual Senators were removed from the live Web at this time.
