New York State Department of State Bureau of Miscellaneous Records Executive Orders 13082
Table of Contents

Overview of the Records ........................................................................................................................................ 3
Arrangement .......................................................................................................................................................... 3
Scope and Contents ............................................................................................................................................... 3
Related Information .............................................................................................................................................. 4
Other Finding Aids ............................................................................................................................................. 4
Use of Records ..................................................................................................................................................... 4
Administrative Information .................................................................................................................................... 5
Access Terms ........................................................................................................................................................ 5
Overview of the Records

Repository: New York State Archives

Summary: This series contains executive orders issued by the governor through the use of the implied powers granted to him by the State Constitution. Executive orders generally fall into one of the following categories: ceremonial or political pronouncements, gubernatorial ordinance, and orders relating to administrative authority and control. Some of the orders also contain letters of transmittal, copies of press releases, and other memoranda. Executive orders are required to be filed with the Department of State.

Creator: New York (State). Department of State. Bureau of Miscellaneous Records

Title: Executive orders

Quantity: 11.7 cubic feet

Inclusive Date: 1955-2017

Series: 13082

Scope and Content Note

This series contains executive orders issued by the Governor through the use of the implied powers granted to him by the State Constitution under Article 4, Section I ("executive power shall be invested in the Governor") and Article 4, Section II ("he shall take care that the laws are faithfully executed").

Executive orders generally fall into one of the following categories: ceremonial or political pronouncements, gubernatorial ordinance, and orders relating to administrative authority and control. Some of the orders also contain letters of transmittal, copies of press releases, and other memoranda. Executive orders are required to be filed with the Department of State.

Arrangement

Reverse chronological and numerical by order number.

- Page 3 -
control. Each order contains the signatures of the Governor and the Secretary to the Governor, and the State Seal. Some of the orders also contain letters of transmittal, copies of press releases and other memoranda. Executive orders are required to be filed within the Department of State according to Section 93 of the Executive Law.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Related Information

Related Material

13685Series 13685, Executive Orders of the Governor, contains copies of executive orders filed with the Governor’s office and 13035Series 13035, Proclamations by the Governor, contains related records addressing the public on matters of law, policy, or custom and also having the force of law.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Other Finding Aids

Available at Repository

13082-92, 13082-96, 13082-08, 13082-17, 13082-19: Container lists are available at the repository.

^ Return to Table of Contents

Use of Records

Access Restrictions

There are no restrictions regarding access to or use of this material.

Alternate Formats Available

1955-1978: 1 roll of microfilm also available.
Administrative Information

Acquisition Information

This series was transferred under RDA 13082.

Access Terms

- Orders
- New York (State)
- Recording executive orders
- New York (State)--Politics and government
- Executive orders
- Governors--Powers and duties
- New York (State). Department of State. Division of Corporations and State Records

^ Return to Table of Contents