Scope and Content Note

This series consists of archival copies of the publicly accessible websites of the New York State Division of the Budget (DOB).

B2055-07: This accretion includes a copy of the main DOB site that was produced on April 7, 2007, several months after Governor George E. Pataki (1995-2006) left office. It contains overviews, agency presentations, financial plans, 30-day amendments, legislative bills, and other records relating to the state's Executive Budget (2001-02 through 2006-07). It also contains press releases (1998-2007), monthly economic and financial reports (2005-2007), and annual information statements (2001-02 through 2006-07) and other information concerning state-issued bonds. Also included are documents concerning the State's World Trade Center economic recovery plan, information concerning the impact of the 2007-08 Executive Budget upon local governments, and information for citizens interested in the State's budget.

This accretion also includes a copy of the DOB Publications site that was produced on December 23, 2006. It contains overviews, agency presentations, financial plans, 30-day amendments, legislative bills, and other records relating to the 2006-07 Executive Budget. It also includes press releases (1998-2005), monthly economic and financial reports (2005-2006), and information concerning the State's World Trade Center economic recovery plan. Researchers should note that, owing to its structure, this copy also includes almost all of the information found on the main DOB site as of December 23, 2006; clicking on the "Home" link at the top right of each Publications page will bring up the home page of the main site.

B2055-08: This accretion includes a copy of the main DOB site that was produced on May 13, 2008, shortly after the resignation of Governor Eliot L. Spitzer (2007-2008). It contains

Also included are meeting materials (2008) of and information about the Public Authorities Control Board and aid to local governments for citizens interested in the state's budget. Researchers should note that although the navigational links at the left-hand side of each page may appear blank, mousing over these links will reveal labeled links that work properly.

This accretion also contains a copy of the DOB Publications site that was produced on May 20, 2008. It contains overviews, agency presentations, financial plans, 30-day amendments, legislative bills, and other records relating to the 2008-09 and 2007-08 Executive Budgets. It also includes press releases (2007-2008) and budget bulletins (1986-1987, 1992-1995, 2000-2008). Researchers should note that, owing to its structure, this copy of the Publications site also includes almost all of the information found on the main Division of the Budget site as of May 20, 2008; clicking on the "Home" link at the top right of each Publications page will bring up the home page of the main site.

This accretion also contains copies of of the Division of the Budget's New York Bonds site and Publications site that were produced on December 17, 2010. The New York Bonds site contains information about the types of bonds sold by the State of New York, current and future bond offerings, and information about how to purchase them. The Publications site contains overviews, agency presentations, financial plans, amendments, legislative bills, and other records relating to the 1999-2000 through 2010-2011 Executive Budgets. It also includes press releases (2007-2010) and budget bulletins (1986-1987, 1992-1995, 2000-2010) and annual information statements (1999-2010) and other information concerning State-issued bonds. Also included are meeting materials (2010) of and information about the Public Authorities Control Board, information about aid to local governments, and information for citizens interested in the State's budget.

B2055-14: This accretion consists of copies of two sites maintained by the Division of the Budget. Owing to the limitations of Web archiving technology, most of the information contained within the Open Budget site (copied February 26, 2014) could not be copied properly. However, this copy does include charts (2014-2015) depicting revenue and expenditures and textual documents and, in some instances, downloadable spreadsheets relating to Executive Budget Financial Plans (1990-2000 through 2014-2015), Executive Budget Financial Plan Updates
New York State Division of the Budget Archived Websites B2055

The Grants Reform website (copied March 5, 2014) contains information about the Grants Gateway application portal that all state agency grant programs began using as of January 1, 2014, a copy of the state's new Master Contract for Grants, and forms and guidelines for state agencies and grantees. Researchers should note that, owing to the structure of the live site and the limitations of Web archiving technology, neither the Grants Gateway system itself nor the training videos posted on the Grants Reform site could be captured properly.

Researchers should note that, owing to the structure of the live site, most of the information associated with the State Agency Guide and Public Authorities Control Board sections of this site could not be captured properly.

This accretion also includes copies of three other sites maintained by the Division of the Budget. The New York Bonds site (captured December 31, 2019) contains information about the types of bonds the state issues, the state's budget and finances (2019-2020) and credit ratings, and a Frequently Asked Questions section for prospective investors. The Voluntary Defined Contribution Plan site (copied January 15, 2020) consists of a single webpage that provides summary information about the state's retirement program for select employees who did not wish to join the state's existing pension system.
